Practical information about accommodation

At Gudenå Camping, please check in at the reception and show your booking confirmation. It will state which tent is reserved for you (e.g., Family Tent 3).

At Voervadsbro Teltplads, there is no reception. You'll need to find your tent yourself – it's marked with our logo and tent number (e.g., Family Tent 3). If a camp supervisor shows up, please show your booking confirmation.

The family tent has four camp beds, but up to five people can sleep there. The fifth person must bring their own sleeping setup (e.g., a sleeping mat).

This is not a glamping tent – we recommend bringing a sleeping mat for more comfort.

There is no kitchenware, cutlery, or other equipment in the tent.

Dogs are not allowed on this trip.

Please remember to bring a sheet (mandatory), sleeping bag, or other sleeping gear.
